Premier Mounts Launches Convergent Series at ISE 2019

Corona, CA, January 28, 2019 - Premier Mounts, the leader in superior audiovisual mounting solutions, is pleased to announce their return as an exhibitor to Integrated Systems Europe (ISE) 2019, the largest AV and systems integration show in the world. With over 1,300 exhibitors and 80,000 attendees, Premier Mounts is eager to debut the award-winning Convergent Series of LED Mounts on an international level.

Integrated Systems Europe is home to everything regarding systems integration technology. ISE highlights the latest technological services and products and presents solutions useful in all areas of the AV industry. ISE is an annual event recognized as an ideal networking environment for top integrators and manufacturers. Keynote speakers, show-floor features and socializing work to spotlight the innovations taking place in areas of AV such as content management and distribution, entertainment forums, and flat screen displays.

With 2019 anticipated to be the biggest ISE exhibition the industry has ever witnessed, Premier Mounts is focused on displaying the cutting-edge innovation and ingenious design of Convergent. "Currently no other product on the market has the capabilities and design of Convergent," said Curtis Rose, Marketing Manager. "Our goal for ISE is to educate the industry about what sets Convergent apart. We believe so strongly in this solution we want the world to have access to it," added Rose.

If you would like the opportunity to learn more about the Convergent series of LED mounts, please reach out to Curtis Rose: curtis@premiermounts.com or come to booth 10-N150 (N150) at ISE.
